

Dependable Strengths 5-Day Course Credits / Clock Hours

The Dependable Strengths 5-Day Course now offers registrants the option of earning Post-Baccalaureate Professional Development / Continuing Education (EPD 900 series course) Credit and Clock Hours. Both options are available through Seattle University's School of Education. Additional information on these options is attached along with the Dependable Strengths 5-Day Course Syllabus.

If you're interested in the credit option, consider the following:

- 3 Credits
- Cost: $105 ($35 per credit)
- Review course syllabus for course requirements
- Elect either the course grade or pass / fail option (inform the instructor)
- Place your initials on the Credit Class Attendance List each day of the course
- At the end of the course, complete the Credit Registration Form, include payment information, and turn in to the instructors
- Payment can be made by check, debit or credit card (VISA and MasterCard accepted). Make checks payable to: Seattle University
- At the end of the course, complete the Course Evaluation Form and turn in to the instructors

If you're interested in the clock hours option, consider the following:

- 35 clock hours
- Cost: $70 ($2 per clock hour)
- Place your initials on the Clock Hours Class Attendance List each day of the course
- At the end of the course, complete the Clock Hour Inservice Registration Form, attach payment and turn in to the instructors
- Payment can be made by check only. Make checks payable to: Seattle University
- At the end of the course, complete the Course Evaluation Form and turn in to the instructors
